Around the Campus

On the free literature wall are a number of booklets dealing with challenging life topics. If there is a topic there that would help you, pick it up! If you have a suggestion for a topic, let the office know by emailing: info@newlifelamesa.org.

The solar panels lie on the roof, waiting to be installed. Jim Brinks, Jim Dossett, and Miguel Riveron scrubbed and primed some rusty spots on the roof support beams, preparing for the project.

The shower in the Doorkeepers apartment had suffered extensive water damage over time. That is currently being repaired.
